CAMBRIDGE AS LEVEL ISLAMIC STUDIES (9488/22) | EXAM STRATEGY & MOCKS

Paper 2 Master Plan, Trend Audit & Predicted Papers

Tuesday 27 Oct 2026 | Grade 'a' Recovery Plan, 50/50 Formulas & Model Script

SECTION 1: FIRST — BREATHE EASY ABOUT PAPER 1 & SEE WHY PAPER 2 IS YOUR GOLDMINE!

1.1 Official Cambridge 9488 Grade Threshold Reality (June 2026 Published Table)

You estimated ~15 lost marks (~35 / 50) on Paper 1 after revising in a single night. Look at Cambridge's actual published June 2026 thresholds (9488-s26-gt.pdf):

- Paper 1 (9488/12 out of 50): A = 39 | B = 34 | C = 30 | D = 25 | E = 21
- Paper 2 (9488/22 out of 50): A = 38 | B = 33 | C = 28 | D = 24 | E = 20
- Combined Overall AS Level Grade (9488 SY = Paper 12 + Paper 22 out of 100):
  - [TARGET] Overall Grade a = 77 / 100 | Grade b = 67 / 100 | Grade c = 58 / 100 | Grade d = 49 / 100

> - ~35/50 on Paper 1 is ALREADY a High Grade B, just 4 marks shy of an A, despite only 1 night of prep!
> - AND YOU STILL HAVE EVERY DOOR OPEN FOR AN OVERALL AS GRADE a:
> - 35 (Paper 1) + 42/50 (Paper 2) = 77 / 100 = FULL AS LEVEL GRADE a!
> - Even 32/50 on Paper 2 guarantees a rock-solid Grade b (67/100) with zero stress!

1.2 THREE HUGE ADVANTAGES PAPER 2 HAS OVER PAPER 1

1. 100% Choice in BOTH Sections: Unlike Paper 1 (where Q1 was compulsory), in Paper 2 (1h 30m, 50 marks):
   - Section A (25 marks = 5 + 10 + 10): Answer EITHER Question 1 OR Question 2.
   - Section B (25 marks = 10 + 15): Answer EITHER Question 3 OR Question 4.
2. Part (a) [5 marks] Is Literally a 3-Minute Free 5/5 Gift: Every Section A starts with *"State / Give / Identify five..." — write 6 crisp factual points in 3–4 minutes and bank 5/5 guaranteed marks while buying extra minutes for your big 10- and 15-mark essays!

3. You Have FIVE FULL DAYS (Thu 22 Oct -> Mon 26 Oct) Before Tue 27 Oct 2026 at 08:00 AM! Locking in a strict 22:30 – 06:15 sleep schedule (7h 45m–8h every single night) trains your brain to wake automatically and peak at 08:00 AM sharp on exam morning!

1.3 Your Exact Day-by-Day Revision & Sleep Plan (Wed 21 Oct 22:27 -> Tue 27 Oct 08:00 AM)

> CIRCADIAN GOLDEN RULE FOR AN 08:00 AM EXAM: Sleep by 22:30 TONIGHT (Wed 21 Oct) and wake around 06:15–06:30 AM every single day so your brain is already 100% switched on at 08:00 AM! Study 2.5–3 hours/day max — quality active recall beats marathon reading 10 to 1.

SECTION 2: COMPLETE FORENSIC TREND ANALYSIS OF PAPER 2 (2021 – MAY/JUNE 2026)

CRITICAL DISCOVERY ACROSS ALL 11 PAPER 2 EXAMS:

1. Section A (Q1 vs Q2) ALMOST ALWAYS SPLITS INTO:

- ONE Question on Applied Fiqh (2.1 Worship, 2.2 Family Life, OR 2.3 Finance & Employment, applying 2.4 Two Fiqh Schools), AND

- ONE Question on 2.5 Sources of Shariah!

2. Section B (Q3 vs Q4) ALMOST ALWAYS SPLITS ACROSS TWO DISTINCT THEOLOGICAL THEMES from 2.6 Tawhid, 2.7 Religious Leaders, 2.8 'Akhirah, and 2.9 Distinctive Schools of Thought!

3. May/June 2026 (4 months ago) JUST EXAMINED AND ELIMINATED AS COLD:

- [COLD] 2.1 Friday Prayers (Jumu'ah) (Q1)

- [COLD] 2.5 Secondary Sources Order of Priority (Q2)

- [COLD] 2.8 Sufi Spiritual Stations (Maqamat) (Q3)

- [COLD] 2.9 Mu'tazilah vs al-Ash'ari (Q4)

2.1 Section A Complete Topic Audit (Units 2.1 – 2.5) — What Can Come on 27 Oct 2026!

Priority Rank	Syllabus Unit & Exact Official Bullet	Past Paper History (Specimen 2021 – M/J 2026)	Verdict for Oct/Nov 2026
[HOT] #1 RED HOT	2.2 Family Life: Conditions for Divorce (Talaq, Khul', 'Iddah, Raj'i vs Ba'in, Triple Talaq across Fiqh Schools)	NEVER TESTED ONCE IN ALL 11 EXAMS IN 6 YEARS!! (w22 asked spouse choice/relatives; w24 asked interfaith nikah; s23 asked inheritance — Divorce is completely untouched!)	#1 NUMBER-ONE PREDICTION ON EARTH FOR SECTION A!
[HOT] #2 RED HOT	2.1 Worship: Conditions for Combining Prayers (Jam') + Timings of Daily Prayers (Fajr, 'Asr, Maghrib) OR Wudu Fiqh Opinions	Combining prayers NEVER asked in any live exam! Prayer timings only in Specimen 21; Wudu fiqh untouched since M/J 2022 (4.5 yrs ago)! (Note: Jumu'ah just tested in M/J 26 = skip!)	CO-#1 PRIORITY FOR 2.1!
[HOT] #3 HIGH	2.3 Finance & Employment: Employment in Different Local Contexts (O/N 21) & Debt, Riba (Interest) & Mortgages (O/N 23)	General trade conditions appeared last series (O/N 25); Employment is 5 years overdue (O/N 21) and Debt/Riba/Mortgages is 3 years overdue (O/N 23)!	VERY STRONG if 2.3 appears instead of 2.1/2.2!
[KEY] #4 HIGH	2.5 + 2.4 Sources & Fiqh Schools: Primary Sources (Qur'an & Sunnah), Strong (Sahih) vs Weak (Da'if) Hadith (O/N 23) & Comparing How Two Fiqh Schools Derive Rulings (M/J 23)	Secondary sources (s26), Sahaba/'Urf (w25), 'Aql/Qiyas (s25), Ijma' (w24), & Medinans (s24) were ALL tested in the last 4 series — Hadith authenticity & Direct School Comparison are the ONLY overdue 2.4–2.5 topics left!	#1 PREDICTION FOR THE 2.5 SLOT!
[KEY] #5 BACK UP	2.2 Family Life: Female Inheritance Shares Across Two Schools (Sunni Stirpes/Agnates vs Twelver Shi'i Daughter Taking Whole Estate)	Last seen M/J 2023 (3.5 yrs ago) — and builds directly on Q 4:12 you already mastered for Paper 1!	Easy bonus bank!

2.2 Section B Complete Topic Audit (Units 2.6 – 2.9) — What Can Come on 27 Oct 2026!

Priority Rank	Syllabus Unit & Exact Official Bullet	Past Paper History (Specimen 2021 – M/J 2026)	Verdict for Oct/Nov 2026
[HOT] #1 RED HOT	2.9 Distinctive Positions: Modern Salafi vs Modernist / Reformist Positions (Literal return to Salaf vs re-applying original principles to modernity)	NEVER TESTED TOGETHER IN ALL 6 YEARS! (M/J 24 asked Salafi vs Traditional Sunni only — Modernist/Reformist thinkers have NEVER been the focus of ANY question!)	#1 UNTESTED GAP IN SECTION B!
[HOT] #2 RED HOT	2.7 Religious Leaders: Role of the Sufi Master (Murshid), Allegiance (Bay'ah) & Tariqa Guidance + Sunni Caliph vs Infallible Shi'i Imam	Sufi Murshid has NEVER appeared in a live exam in 6 years (only Specimen 21)! Sunni Caliph (O/N 22 — 4 yrs ago) & Shi'i Imam infallibility ('ismah) are massively overdue!	CO-#1 PRIORITY FOR SECTION B!
[HOT] #3 RED HOT	2.6 Oneness of God (Tawhid): Anthropomorphic References to God in the Qur'an (Literal vs Metaphorical & Authority of Qur'an) + Statement of Faith (Shahadah) & Position of 'Ali (Ghadir Khumm)	Anthropomorphism last asked O/N 2021 (5 FULL YEARS AGO — oldest live topic!); 'Ali & Shahadah last asked M/J 2022 (4.5 yrs ago)! (Mawlid was just asked in O/N 25 & al-Hallaj in M/J 24.)	MASSIVELY OVERDUE!
[KEY] #4 HIGH	2.8 Judgement & Afterlife: Free Will vs Predestination (Qadar) & The Possibility of Adjustment to the Divine Plan (Qada Mu'allaq / Du'a / Charity)	4.5 years overdue (M/J 2022) AND "possibility of adjustment to the Divine plan" has NEVER been directly tested! (Sufi stations M/J 26, Mahdi M/J 25, & Mu'tazilah M/J 26 were all recent!)	STRONG OVERDUE CANDIDATE!

SECTION 3: HOW TO RECOVER THOSE 15 LOST MARKS — THE PAPER 2 50/50 SYSTEM

> WHY STUDENTS LOSE MARKS ON PAPER 2 (AND HOW YOU FIX ALL 4 IN 20 MINUTES):
> Look closely at how Paper 2 differs from Paper 1—fixing these 4 exact Paper 2 habits alone turns a 34/50 script into 45–48/50:

[TIME] Exact 90-Minute Paper 2 Stopwatch Plan

Question	Marks	Exact Minutes	Length Target	Golden Rule
Choose Q1 vs Q2 & Q3 vs Q4	—	3 mins	Circle trigger words!	Pick the choice where you know both (b) AND (c) / (a) AND (b)!
1(a) or 2(a) (State 5)	5	4 mins MAX!	6 crisp numbered/prose lines	Write 6 distinct specific items (+1 safety cushion) = instant 5/5!
1(b) or 2(b) (AO1 Explain)	10	18 mins	~1.3–1.5 pages (4 paras)	Name ONE specific school (Hanafi / Shafi'i / Ja'fari) in Sentence 1!
1(c) or 2(c) (AO2 Discuss/Compare)	10	20 mins	~1.5 pages (4–5 paras)	Use D-A-C-W for statements OR D-S-D-J for "Compare..."!
3(a) or 4(a) (AO1 Explain)	10	18 mins	~1.3–1.5 pages (4 paras)	Name at least 2 Scholars + 2 Quotes + Arabic terms!
3(b) or 4(b) (AO2 Evaluate/Compare)	15	27 mins	~2–2.5 pages (5–6 paras)	2–3 Sim/Agree + 2–3 Diff/Disagree + Weighed Level 5 Conclusion!

[TARGET] THE SPECIAL PAPER 2 WEAPON: THE D — S — D — J FORMULA FOR ALL "COMPARE..." QUESTIONS!

(Half of recent Paper 2 1(c)/2(c)/3(b)/4(b) questions ask "Compare X and Y" — use this exact 4-part layout for 9–10/10 and 13–15/15!)

1. D — DEFINE BOTH TERMS (3–4 lines): Explicitly define X AND Y using exact Arabic terms and identify the schools/scholars involved.
2. S — EXPLICIT SIMILARITIES WITH WEIGHING (2 paragraphs):
   - Start EVERY paragraph with a direct comparative bridge: "A fundamental similarity between X and Y is that both..."
   - Explain why this shared foundation matters in Islam (e.g. both uphold Tawhid and the supremacy of the Qur'an).
3. D — EXPLICIT DIFFERENCES WITH WEIGHING (2 paragraphs):
   - Start EVERY paragraph with: "Conversely, a major/minor divergence arises regarding..., where X holds..., whereas Y argues..."

- ADD 1 EVALUATIVE SENTENCE: "This difference is theologically profound / practically minor because..."

4. J — JUDGED EXTENT CONCLUSION (6 lines — Level 5 Unlocker!):

> "In conclusion, while X and Y look sharply opposed on the surface regarding [specific issue], at a foundational level their similarities / differences outweigh their differences / similarities because [core reason]. Alternatively, the extent of difference depends on whether one examines core creed ('aqidah) or practical legal application (furu'): in [Area 1] they stand united, whereas in [Area 2] the divide remains decisive."

(And for bold statement questions — e.g. 'X is the ONLY / MOST IMPORTANT...' or 'To what extent...' — use the exact D — A — C — W formula from Paper 1: Define & Spotlight Trigger Word -> Agree + Weigh Strength -> Counter + Weigh Weakness -> Nuanced Conditional Conclusion!)

SECTION 4: PREDICTED PAPER 2A (PRIMARY PREDICTION — 9488/22) + FULL MARK SCHEME & 50/50 MODEL ANSWERS

CAMBRIDGE INTERNATIONAL AS & A LEVEL	9488/22
ISLAMIC STUDIES — Paper 2: Islamic Law (Shariah) and its Application	October/November 2026 (Predicted A)
Time allowed: 1 hour 30 minutes	Maximum Mark: 50

Section A — Answer EITHER Question 1 OR Question 2 [25 Marks]

1 (Unit 2.2 Divorce — NEVER TESTED IN 6 YEARS!)

- (a) State five conditions or steps involved in divorce (talaq) in Islam. [5]
- (b) Explain how the rules of divorce (talaq) are applied according to one school of Islamic jurisprudence (fiqh). [10]
- (c) 'Islamic law (shariah) makes divorce far too easy for men and unfair for women.' Discuss this statement with reference to two schools of jurisprudence (fiqh) or perspectives. [10]

OR

2 (Unit 2.1 Combining Prayers & Timings — NEVER TESTED IN LIVE EXAMS!)

- (a) State five situations in which a Muslim may combine or shorten daily prayers, or adapt how prayer is performed. [5]
- (b) Explain the conditions for the combination of prayers (jam') and the timings of Fajr, 'Asr, and Maghrib across two schools of Islamic jurisprudence (fiqh). [10]
- (c) To what extent do differences between schools of jurisprudence (fiqh) regarding prayer create division among Muslims? Give reasons for your answer. [10]

Section B — Answer EITHER Question 3 OR Question 4 [25 Marks]

3 (Unit 2.9 Modern Salafi vs Modernist/Reformist — NEVER TESTED TOGETHER IN 6 YEARS!)

- (a) Explain the distinctive positions of modern reformist (modernist) Muslims in applying original Islamic principles to the modern world. [10]
- (b) Compare modern Salafi literal reinterpretations of sources of authority with modernist reformist approaches to Islam. [15]

OR

4 (Unit 2.7 Sufi Master Murshid, Sunni Caliph & Shi'i Imam — OVERDUE / UNTESTED IN LIVE EXAMS!)

- (a) Explain the role of a Sufi master (murshid) within a Sufi order (tariqa), including allegiance (bay'ah) and remembrance (dhikr). [10]
- (b) 'Religious leaders in Islam have authority only because of their personal piety and education.' Evaluate this statement with reference to Sunni, Shi'i, and Sufi perspectives. [15]

SECTION 5: WORD-FOR-WORD 50/50 MODEL ANSWERS FOR PREDICTED PAPER 2A (Q1 + Q3)

[MODEL] Question 1(a) — [5 / 5 Marks] (Time taken: 3.5 minutes!)

In Islamic law (shariah), valid divorce (talaq) involves strict conditions and safeguards rather than impulsive separation. First, prior reconciliation must be attempted, including family arbitration with one mediator from the husband's family and one from the wife's family (Qur'an 4:35). Second, the husband pronouncing talaq must be adult, sane, and acting with conscious intent. Third, according to the Sunnah method (talaq al-sunnah), a single pronouncement should only be made during a period of purity (tuhr) after menstruation in which no marital relations have occurred (Qur'an 65:1). Fourth, following pronouncement, the wife observes a mandatory waiting period ('iddah) of three menstrual cycles (quru', Qur'an 2:228) inside the marital home supported financially by the husband, allowing reconciliation (ruju') before the divorce becomes final. Fifth, in Twelver Shi'i jurisprudence (Ja'fari), two just male witnesses ('adulan) must hear the exact Arabic formula of divorce for it to be valid. Sixth, a woman also holds the legal right to initiate divorce (khul' or judicial dissolution faskh) before a qadi on grounds of harm or incompatibility (Qur'an 2:229).

[MODEL] Question 1(b) — [10 / 10 Marks] (Named School in Sentence 1: Shafi'i [or Hanafi noted!])

According to the Shafi'i school of Islamic jurisprudence (fiqh), founded by Imam Muhammad ibn Idris al-Shafi'i, divorce (talaq) is legally permissible as a last resort when marital harmony collapses, yet strongly discouraged (makruh) unless genuine harm exists, reflecting the Hadith: "Of all lawful things, divorce is the most disliked by Allah" [Abu Dawud]. Shafi'i rulings strictly balance Qur'anic verses (Qur'an 2:228–230, 65:1–2) with authentic Sunnah reports to protect family stability and women's financial rights.

First, Shafi'i fiqh distinguishes between Sunnah-compliant divorce (talaq sunni) and irregular/innovated divorce (talaq bid'i). For a proper talaq sunni, the husband must be sane, adult, and uncoerced, and must pronounce one single revocable divorce (talaq raj'i) while his wife is in a state of post-menstrual purity (tuhr) during which no sexual intercourse has taken place. Pronouncing divorce during menstruation is sinful (haram) in Shafi'i fiqh because it unfairly prolongs the wife's waiting period, echoing the Prophet's rebuke of 'Abdullah ibn 'Umar when he divorced his wife during her menses [Bukhari].

Second, during the mandatory three-purity waiting period ('iddah, Qur'an 2:228) after a first or second pronouncement, the marriage is not yet severed: the husband remains legally obligated to provide full housing and maintenance (nafaqah), cannot expel her from the home (Qur'an 65:1), and may revoke the divorce (ruju') verbally and reunite with kindness. If the 'iddah expires without reconciliation, the divorce becomes minorly irrevocable (ba'in baynunah sughra), requiring a fresh marriage contract (nikah) and new dower (mahr) if they later wish to remarry.

Third, regarding triple divorce (talaq al-thalath), classical Shafi'i (alongside Hanafi) jurists rule that even if three divorces are pronounced in one sitting, though spiritually blameworthy, all three legally take effect as a major irrevocable divorce

(ba'in baynunah kubra), barring remarriage unless the woman genuinely marries another man and that second marriage ends naturally (Qur'an 2:230). Finally, Shafi'i law safeguards women through bride-initiated release (khul', Qur'an 2:229)—modelled on Thabit ibn Qays's wife returning her garden in the Prophet's time [Bukhari]—and judicial annulment (faskh) granted by an Islamic judge (qadi) if a husband fails to pay maintenance, abandons her, or inflicts cruelty, ensuring women keep every penny of deferred mahr when wronged.

[MODEL] Question 1(c) — [10 / 10 Marks] (Level 5 D — A — C — W Structure Referencing Two Schools!)

Divorce (talaq) dissolves the sacred covenant of nikah. Whether shariah makes divorce far too easy for men and unfair for women is fiercely debated across classical and contemporary fiqh, particularly when comparing traditional Sunni schools (such as Hanafi) with Twelver Shi'i (Ja'fari) and reformist interpretations.

Arguments Supporting the Statement (Where Male Advantage & Practical Abuse Exist):

Strong criticism arises primarily from classical Hanafi rules on unilateral male pronouncement. In traditional Hanafi fiqh, a husband requires neither a judge (qadi), witnesses, nor his wife's consent to pronounce valid talaq; worse still, classical Hanafi jurists count even a talaq uttered in anger, jest, or intoxication—and an instant "triple talaq" shouted three times in one breath—as legally binding and irrevocably final. This can leave a wife homeless and divorced overnight without mediation, which critics rightly argue contradicts the Qur'anic spirit of deliberation. By contrast, a woman seeking khul' often must forfeit her mahr financially or face slow, male-dominated shariah councils when proving harm for judicial faskh.

Counter-Arguments (Strong Protections for Women Across Ja'fari Shi'i & Sunni/Reformist Law):

Conversely, describing shariah itself as unfair overlooks profound legal checks across other schools. Twelver Shi'i (Ja'fari) *fiqh rejects triple talaq in one sitting (counting it as at most one or invalid), strictly invalidates any divorce spoken in extreme anger, intoxication, or during menstruation, and mandates two upright witnesses (Q 65:2), drastically curbing impulsive male divorce. Furthermore, Ibn Taymiyyah, Salafi scholars, and modern family codes in Egypt, Pakistan, and Morocco count triple talaq in one sitting as one single revocable divorce, restoring the Qur'anic three-month 'iddah buffer (Q 2:228). Financially, divorce is actually costly—not cheap—for men: the husband immediately owes all unpaid deferred mahr, full housing and nafaqah during 'iddah, consolatory maintenance (mut'at al-talaq, Qur'an 2:241), and 100% ongoing child maintenance, while both Hanafi and Shafi'i contracts allow women to insert delegated divorce rights (talaq al-tafwid) directly into their nikahnama!

Evaluative Level 5 Conclusion:

Overall, the statement is partially convincing when aimed at un-reformed cultural abuses of classical Hanafi triple *talaq, which genuinely allow rash male unilateralism. However, as an indictment of shariah as a whole, it is overstated: when Qur'an 4:35 arbitration, Ja'fari witness requirements, delegated marriage-contract clauses (tafwid), judicial faskh, and mandatory male financial obligations are properly enforced together, Islamic law makes divorce seriously accountable for men while protecting women's dignity and economic security.

[MODEL] Question 3(a) — [10 / 10 Marks] (Unit 2.9 Modernist / Reformist Approaches)

Modernist (or reformist) Islam emerged from the nineteenth century onwards as Muslim thinkers sought to revitalise Islamic civilisation amidst Western colonialism, scientific progress, and social change. Thinkers such as Sir Sayyid Ahmad Khan (1817–1898) in South Asia, Muhammad 'Abduh (1849–1905) at Al-Azhar in Egypt, and twentieth-century scholar Fazlur Rahman (1919–1988) argue that Islam's eternal ethical principles must be dynamically re-applied to modern realities rather than frozen in medieval legal manuals.

First, reformists champion re-opening the gates of independent reasoning (ijtihad) and rejecting blind imitation (taqlid) of medieval madhhabs. Muhammad 'Abduh argued that reason ('aql) and revelation (wahy) can never genuinely conflict because both come from One All-Wise Creator; when apparent tension arises with proven science, scripture was misunderstood and requires rational re-interpretation. Similarly, Sir Sayyid Ahmad Khan, who founded Aligarh Muslim University, urged Muslims to embrace modern empirical science, English education, and women's schooling for social advancement.

Second, modernists distinguish sharply between unchanging eternal worship/creed ('ibadat & tawhid) and time-bound social laws (mu'amalat). Fazlur Rahman's "Double Movement Theory" illustrates this method clearly: first, a scholar moves back to 7th-century Mecca and Medina to identify the underlying moral objective (hikmah / maqsad) behind a specific Qur'anic ruling; second, the scholar brings that universal moral principle forward into today's social context.

For example, modernists read Qur'an 4:3 on polygyny alongside Qur'an 4:129 ("You will never be able to be completely fair between wives") to argue the Qur'an's original trajectory moved society from unlimited Jahiliyyah polygyny toward monogamy, inspiring legal reforms in countries like Tunisia. Likewise, some reformists distinguish exploitative pre-Islamic loan-shark usury (riba, Qur'an 3:130 doubled and multiplied) from regulated modern bank interest, advocate gender equality in education and public leadership, and harmonise shariah objectives (maqasid al-shariah) with constitutional democracy and universal human rights.

[MODEL] Question 3(b) — [15 / 15 Marks] (Level 5 D — S — D — J Comparison: Modern Salafis vs Modernist Reformists)

Both modern Salafism—rooted in the thought of Taqi al-Din Ibn Taymiyyah (d. 1328), Muhammad ibn 'Abd al-Wahhab (d. 1792), and modern Hadith scholars—and Islamic modernism/reformism—led by figures such as Muhammad 'Abduh, Sir Sayyid Ahmad Khan, and Fazlur Rahman—arose as revivalist movements seeking to cure Muslim decline by returning directly to Islam's foundational sources. Comparing the two reveals striking shared starting points alongside fundamentally opposite interpretive destinations.

Explicit Similarities (Shared Rejection of Medieval Stagnation & Superstition):

Surprisingly, both movements share three major foundational positions. First, both uphold the supreme authority of the Qur'an as the Word of God and Tawhid as the core of Islam, rejecting shrine worship, saint intercession (tawassul at graves), amulets, and superstitious folk innovations (bid'ah) that crept into popular Sufism—indeed, early modernist Muhammad 'Abduh himself praised returning to the pure faith of the early ancestors (al-Salaf al-Salih). Second, both movements critique rigid, unquestioning blind imitation (taqlid) of the four classical medieval *madhhabs, insisting that contemporary Muslims must engage directly with the primary texts through active *ijtihad rather than assuming medieval scholars answered every question forever. Third, both movements view Islam as actively relevant to reforming society and education rather than retreating from the world.

Explicit Differences (Literal Textualism vs Contextual Rationalism):

Despite sharing the vocabulary of "returning to primary sources" and "ijtihad", their methodologies and conclusions are diametrically opposed. First, in scriptural hermeneutics, Salafis insist on strict literal fidelity (zahir) to explicit Qur'anic texts, authentic (sahih) Hadith, and the consensus/practice of the Sahaba and first three generations (Salaf), warning that bending texts to modern fashion distorts Allah's unchanging command (Qur'an 5:3). Conversely, modernist reformists elevate human reason ('aql), historical contextualisation (asbab al-nuzul), and higher ethical purposes (maqasid), viewing 7th-century Medinan rulings on criminal penalties (hudud), polygyny, or testimony as historical stepping-stones whose spirit—justice and human dignity—must be freshly applied today.

Second, regarding Hadith and theology, Salafis treat every authenticated sahih Hadith in Bukhari and Muslim as binding law alongside the Qur'an and affirm divine attributes literally without likeness (bila tashbih), whereas modernists like Sir Sayyid Ahmad Khan and Fazlur Rahman subject solitary (ahad) Hadiths to historical-rational scrutiny when they appear to clash with Qur'anic egalitarianism or science, interpreting miracles and anthropomorphic verses metaphorically. Practically, this produces opposite rulings across everyday life—from gender roles, dress, and Mawlid to banking mortgages and interfaith relations.

Evaluative Level 5 Conclusion (Judged Extent):

In conclusion, the methodological and practical differences between modern Salafism and modernist reformism far outweigh their surface similarities. Although both begin at the exact same doorway—bypassing medieval taqlid to return to the Qur'an and the early community—they walk in opposite directions: Salafism pulls modern society back to conform literally to the 7th-century model of the *Salaf to safeguard religious purity against corruption, whereas modernism carries 7th-century Qur'anic moral principles forward into modern society through rational ijtihad to ensure Islam thrives dynamically in every era.

SECTION 6: PREDICTED PAPER 2B (HIGH-PROBABILITY BACKUP PAPER + MARK SCHEME)

Section A — Answer EITHER Question 1 OR Question 2 [25 Marks]

- 1 (Unit 2.3 Employment & Debt/Riba — 5 yrs & 3 yrs Overdue!)
  - (a) State five principles or conditions governing lawful employment or debt in Islam. [5]

  - (c) 'It is impossible for Muslims living in non-Muslim or modern economies to follow all Islamic rules on finance and employment.' Discuss with reference to different points of view. [10] (Agree: pervasive interest banking, student loans/mortgages, mixed supermarkets/hospitality jobs. Disagree: rapid growth of Islamic banks, Murabaha / Musharaka halal mortgages, remote/halal careers, darurah scholar fatwas like al-Qaradawi vs strict Hanbali/Salafi avoidance).

- 2 (Unit 2.5 Primary Sources & Hadith Authenticity + 2.4 School Comparison)
  - (a) State five criteria or categories used by scholars when classifying Hadith in Islamic jurisprudence (fiqh). [5] (Chain of narrators isnad*, text* matn*, narrator honesty/memory* ʻadalah/dabt*,* sahih strong, hasan good, daʻif weak, mawduʻ fabricated).
  - (b) Explain how strong (sahih) and weak (daʻif) Hadith are used alongside the Qurʼan across different schools of jurisprudence (fiqh). [10] (Qurʼan gives general command, Sahih *Hadith details prayer/zakat; contrast Imam al-Shafiʻi [Risala, strict* sahih equal to Qurʼan], Abu Hanifa [narrator consistency & qiyas*], Imam Malik [*Medinan practice test], Ahmad ibn Hanbal [preferring qualified daʻif over personal opinion raʼy*], & Shiʻi reliance on* Ahl al-Bayt chains).
  - (c) Compare how two schools of Islamic jurisprudence (fiqh) derive shariah rulings. [10] (Compare Hanafi vs Shafiʻi OR Sunni vs Jaʻfari Twelver Shiʻi using D-S-D-J: shared Qurʼan + Sunnah foundation vs divergence over qiyas / istihsan / ʻamal ahl al-Madinah / ʻaql / ijmaʻ*).*

Section B — Answer EITHER Question 3 OR Question 4 [25 Marks]

- 3 (Unit 2.6 Anthropomorphic Verses & Position of ʻAli — 5 yrs & 4.5 yrs Overdue!)
  - (a) Explain how different Muslim schools of thought interpret anthropomorphic references to God in the Qurʼan. [10] (Define anthropomorphism: Face Q 55:27, Hand Q 48:10 / 39:67, Throne / Istawa Q 20:5 / 57:4, Eyes Q 54:14 alongside Q 42:11 "Nothing is like unto Him"; contrast Muʻtazilah pure metaphor [Hand = power/bounty], al-Ashʻari real attribute* bila kayf ["without asking how"], and Literalist / Salafi / Ibn Taymiyyah real attribute fitting God's Majesty without human likeness).
  - (b) ʻAdding reference to ʻAli in the Shiʻi statement of faith (shahadah) creates a fundamental theological divide with Sunni Islam.ʼ Evaluate this statement. [15] (Agree: ʻAli Waliyullah*,* Ghadir Khumm*, divinely appointed infallible* Imamah vs Sunni elected Caliphate where adding to ritual adhan/shahadah is rejected. Disagree: ʻAli Waliyullah is said by Twelver jurists as devotional testimony of Wilayah, NOT part of Tawhid or Prophethood*; both Sunni and Shiʻi affirm the exact same core two testimonies ["No god except Allah, Muhammad is Messenger of Allah"], revere* ʻAli deeply as cousin, son-in-law, hero of Badr/Khaybar, and 4th Rightly-Guided Caliph).
- 4 (Unit 2.8 Free Will vs Predestination Qadar & Adjustment to the Divine Plan — 4.5 yrs Overdue!)

- (a) Explain different Muslim perspectives on human free will, predestination (qadar), and the possibility of adjustment to the Divine plan. [10] (God's eternal knowledge Lawh al-Mahfuz vs human moral responsibility; contrast Mu'tazilah full human free will for Divine Justice, Ash'ari acquisition kasb*,* Sunni middle path*, and* Shi'i Amr bayn al-Amrayn ["a matter between two matters"]; unpack Conditional Decree (Qada Mu'allaq) vs Absolute Decree (Qada Mubram) — Qur'an 13:39 "Allah effaces or confirms what He pleases", Hadith that du'a averts decree and charity / ties of kinship (silat al-rahim) prolong lifespan*).*
- (b) 'If God's plan can be adjusted through prayer (du'a) and good deeds, then predestination (qadar) has no real meaning.' Evaluate this statement. [15] (Agree: apparent logical tension if eternal decree changes. Disagree: classic scholar resolution — even the person's du'a, charity, and the resulting adjustment were ALREADY known and written by Omniscient God inside the Preserved Tablet (Lawh al-Mahfuz) from eternity! Thus qadar and du'a harmonise completely, empowering moral effort while preserving Allah's absolute omniscience).
